

Discovering God's Will

Week Five: A View from the Top

Video Notes:

1. The Bible is so _____, there's a tendency to overlook it as a primary tool!
2. The Bible is a _____ means through which God desires to lead us and direct us.
3. David found comfort and counsel in God's _____.
4. We are to use God's Word to find His _____ for our lives.
5. One way would be to look in the _____ and find people who had parallel situations to our own.
6. In making decisions, what is naturally _____ to us may actually lead us astray.
7. Our logic, from God's perspective, may be _____.

The Three elements of a Decision:

8. There are three things that come to bear on any decision: the context, your perspective, and the _____.
9. Our context is limited to what we know and what we've _____.
10. Our perspective is always impacted by our desired and our _____.
11. The outcome is just a _____.
12. In the Scriptures, what God has given us is a slice of His _____.

Mileposts Key Point

In making decisions, what is naturally intuitive to us may actually lead us astray.

Assignment for the week

Read Job 38:1-42:6

1. From this passage, identify at least five accomplishments God presents to Job as a reminder of His sovereignty.
2. Next, list five facts about your own life that point to God's sovereignty. It may be a specific way He has intervened in your life or an everyday miracle like your ability to breathe.

Changing Your Mind –

Begin now to train your mind to mirror God's, beginning with this week's verse, which focuses on the superiority of God's way of thinking.

“For My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways My ways,” declares the Lord. “For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts.”
Isaiah 55:8-9